Subject : Comments in the Press about our Company

Comments conflicting with truth are made about our Company and Controlling Partner in the press release published by Atilla Kart, CHP Konya Deputy, on 11/10/2010.

Our Company performs industrial and commercial activities within the framework of legal legislation since 1985. Results of such activities are audited by independent audit companies and tax liabilities are fulfilled completely.

Active in the manufacture of on-board equipment, our Company exports more than half of the products to 39 different countries and total of invoices issued to public organizations in Turkey in 2007, 2008, and 2009 are 0.5%, 8.8%, and 3.8% of total sales, respectively.

24% of the Company stocks are publicly owned and the financial statements are held subject to independent audit. Untrue comments and information targeting our Company and management are for degrading the reputation of our controlling partner before the public opinion and our company before the investors, and our partners shall resort to their legal rights on those making such kind of news and comments.
